

Welcome to John A. Logan College! We have put together a free online course for you called “New Student Orientation.” This will help prepare you for your first days as a college student. The mandatory orientation will take approximately 15-20 minutes to complete and a passing grade of 80% or above completes the requirement. The College asks for your participation in order to make sure you are fully aware of procedures, policies, regulations, and general information about John A. Logan College. We hope this is your first step to a successful college career. The faculty, staff, and administration wish you good luck at John A. Logan College.

The orientation course is located within our Desire2Learn (D2L) area (<https://learn.jalc.edu/>). If you need help with logging in, here is the help site and contact info: http://www.jalc.edu/online\_learning/help.php#

Once you are in D2L look in the upper right-hand side and click on Tools. Then click Self Registration. Click New Student Orientation, click Register, click Submit, and then click Finish. Then click go to the course offering New Student Orientation. Click on the Content box in the Course Content area to start, heading to the Introduction and through each Section (using the NEXT button). Good luck!
