October is the National Disability Employment Awareness Month

John A. Logan College

Presents

Topic: Disability Awareness: Education to Employment

Where: Terrace Dining Room (McCollum Room)

When: Monday, October 31, 2016

Time: 11:00 – 12:00 noon

Ms. Nikki Brooks, Coordinator of Disability Services for our campus will host this presentation. We encourage you to join us in celebration of the accomplishments of people with disabilities.

“Workplaces welcoming of the talents of all people, including people with disabilities, are a critical part of our efforts to build an inclusive community and strong economy. In this spirit, the John A. Logan College is recognizing National Disability Employment Awareness Month this October to raise awareness about disability employment issues and celebrate the many and varied contributions of people with disabilities.

Our purpose is to reinforce the value and talent people with disabilities add to our workplaces and communities and affirm our commitment to an inclusive community” (United States Department of Labor, 2016).

Co-sponsored by the Diversity and Inclusion office and Disability Services.
