INTERACTIVE SESSION WITH THE JOHN A. LOGAN COLLEGE STUDENT SENATE

Board Chair Don Brewer welcomed members of the John A. Logan College Student Senate for an interactive session with the board. Student Trustee Christine Lipe reported that students, faculty and alumni recently traveled to Springfield for Student Advocacy Day in an effort to meet with state legislators to discuss the recent budget impasse. Trustee Lipe reported that Student Senate members were able to meet with several legislators and had a very positive experience.

Student involvement projects for the year included a Volmail contest, Canscape Food Drive, voter registration drive and a club organized blood drive. Student Senate members will also be providing students with final exam survival kits.

Trustee Ray Hancock asked why they were encouraging students to use Volmail email. Senate member explained that this email is the main contact between instructors and students. Many students do not use their Volmail accounts, which creates frustration for instructors and students when they do not get the information they need.

Trustee Jake Rendleman asked if they had made plans for next year. Sponsor Adrienne Barkley Giffin replied that the traditional projects are planned including welcome kits, Thanksgiving food drive and angel tree donations. They also plan to launch another Volmail contest in the fall. Jake reiterated that the Board is always available to participate in any projects as needed.

Trustee Kilquist asked what type of comments were received from legislators at Student Advocacy Day. Senate member replied that Senator Luechtfeld commented that he was hopeful to agree on a FY17 budget this May. Trustee Kilquist noted that the pressure from the students may have had a part in turning the tide regarding the budget impasse and thanked the Student Senate for what they had done. With no further comments, Chair Brewer thanked the Student Senate for coming.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and President House, Board Chair Don Brewer presented retiring Board Recording Secretary Donna Glodjo a crystal pitcher in honor of her service to John A. Logan College and the Board of Trustees. Ms. Glodjo expressed her appreciation for the support and kindness she had received from the Board of Trustees and others at John A. Logan College.
